

Ms. Subha Srinivas

Having equipped herself with a Post Graduate Degree in Science and a M Phil in Botany, Subha Srinivas started her journey as Biology Teacher. Having successfully taught in various Army Schools and Convents across India, she progressed to be a principal in well-known Army School and subsequently in an IB International School at Hyderabad. She then went on to be the Founder Country Head of DRS Education now Edify Education. Since 2010 she runs her own curriculum and training company Amoeba Education. With a body of work spanning 38 years, she now dons the hat of CEO and Founder of this entity which is into providing assistance in setting up next generation schools, providing curricular support and enhancement programs for teachers and students. In 2019 She launched her own publication company PURPLESTONE PUBLICATIONS which is into conceptualizing, designing and printing text books for next generation learners.

She has dedicated her life to finding and establishing new models of educational institutions with a vision of learning rather than schooling. These educational models are creative, synergistic, are beyond dualities of art science, mind-body or even east-west and have a holistic approach towards learning. She has been to Harvard University USA to get insight into Multiple Intelligence and hence been an active MI Leader helping schools to implement and practice MI elements seamlessly in the curriculum and classroom.

Her passion for empowering teachers and principals to be visionary educators with 21st skills has made her an avid traveller. She has conducted teachers' workshops at IB schools in US, Europe, Singapore and India. She is now actively involved in establishing schools in Middle East and Africa besides driving her new student talk program titled BEYONDER across India. Being an educator and involved in many entrepreneurial initiatives, Subha, who finds her life in work, hopes "to give the ability to take risks without the fear of failure" to as many people as she can.
